Weeks, days and nights have been spent in hard labor preparing for this great event; skill, intelligence and energy have been combined to eclipse all efforts of the past. The main-spring of action has been touched, and we are now ready with the most charming collection of the season's most beautiful creations of Millinery ever exhibited in Salt Lake. The collection embodies many distinctive artistic touches, which distinguishes this store's individuality and exclusiveness. Hundreds of New styles arrived this last week, making the collection so superbly grand that it looks like a rainbow in a summer sky, all of such striking beauty, thoroughly expressing the highest development of the designers artistic skill, exciting the admiration and wonder of all. Imported models and copies of French models in beautiful tints and soft, delicate shadings, besides hundreds of exclusive creations from our own workrooms, scores of smart effects in the New Metropolitan and pyroxylian braids, bent and twisted into all conceiveable shapes and styles—one of the most fetching ones being the new Hood Shape that has so suddenly bounded into popularity, the new Walking Hat with round satin crown and straw brim; the sailors in Milan chip and other fashionable straws, and also the new English high crown sailor that is so becoming. It is impossible to adequately depict the beauty of them all, yet we must say that they are all moderate in price. But we determined to leave no stone unturned but to have the best millinery the market has
